IF YOU ARE INJURED ON THE JOB

It is vital that you report your injury to your supervisor right away and seek immediate medical care. Your company's workers' compensation coverage will pay for your medical expenses in accordance with state laws and regulations. You may also qualify for partial reimbursement of lost wages.

For your convenience, below are some network options for medical care in your area. Or, you can search for a network provider at www.summitholdings.com. The network doctors are specially trained in treating workplace injuries and have been prescreened and certified by Summit, your workers' compensation provider.

If the injury requires prompt medical treatment, call 911 immediately.
